NO TALK IN U.S. OF APPEASING HITLER Recall Of Dieckhoff Put To German Pride

JAPANESE BAN ON TIENSIN NEWSPAPER

LONDON, TO-DAY.
THE JAPANESE HAVE PROHIBITED THE STUDENTS AND STAFF OF THE ANGLO-CHINESE COLLEGE IN TIENSIN FROM READING THE "PEKING AND TIENSIN TIMES," ACCORDING TO NEWS REACHING THE LONDON MISSIONARY SOCIETY FROM NORTH CHINA.

No reason is given for the regulation, says the Society, which adds that there are over 600 boys at the College, where Japanese has now to be taught for three hours a week.

The College is a London Missionary Society institution.—Reuter.

ITALY AND LONDON NAVAL TREATY

LONDON, TO-DAY.
ADHESION OF ITALY TO THE LONDON NAVAL TREATY OF 1936 IS EXPECTED TO BE RECEIVED IN LONDON SHORTLY.

It is understood that information to this effect was conveyed to Whitehall from the Italian Embassy.

Following the adhesion, there will be an exchange of information regarding building programmes, as provided in the Treaty, to which Germany has already adhered. — Reuter.

JAP. ACTIVITY IN BIAS BAY

Swatow, To-day.
It is reported here that a Japanese warship, accompanied by 15 armed trawlers and several transports, arrived in Bias Bay yesterday.

All Japanese armed vessels had recently departed from Bias Bay for the Pearl River Delta.

According to the same report, no attempt was made to land troops or blue-jackets.—Our Own Correspondent.

Washington, To-day.
"German pride" is considered here to be the reason for the recall of the Nazi Ambassador, Dr. Hans Dieckhoff.

It is suggested that Nazi Germany could hardly countenance retention of Dr. Dieckhoff in Washington in view of the recall of the American Ambassador and Commercial Counsellor from Berlin.

Well-informed circles anticipate a lengthy period of poor German-American relations, and foresee no improvement until the exodus of Germany's persecuted minorities is settled.

High circles are aware that this is an occasion where Britain and the United States are not following exactly a parallel policy.

This is regretted, especially when there is no desire to embarrass Mr. Chamberlain in his "policy of appeasement."

DODGED GUNMAN BULLET

Shanghai, To-day.
A Chinese physician dodged a gunman's bullet in Nanyaig Hospital, in the French Concession, and his attacker was captured by the police after a chase.

The quick-witted doctor is Koo Nan-chun, 48, the hospital director, and a Japanese returned student.

The captured attacker was Tsang Zang-kung, 36.—Reuter.

FOUR SAILORS OF H.M.S. DIAMOND MISSING

The Naval authorities in Hong Kong report that four sailors off H.M.S. Diamond, at Swatow, were involved in a sampan accident yesterday and have been reported missing. At the moment there is no confirmation of them having drowned.

However, the United States has never been committed to this policy, and it is pointed out that while conditions in Germany continue as at present, no United States Government answerable to Catholic, Jewish and Negro minorities numbering 36,000,000 could talk of appeasing Hitler.—Reuter.

HIGH, ROUND BUST REQUIRED BY TO-DAY'S FASHIONS

If Milady hasn't a high, rounded slimmed waist, full-topped coats — bust curve, she should strive to all call for an ample curve, to set them off alluringly. attain one, for fashion has swung back to the first of the century when bosoms were prominently in fashion!

Witty Kitty

Domestic wars and the wars between nations have this in common to-day — they both start without a declaration.

Hope For Flat-Chested

In many instances, the flat chested girl can increase her bust measurement an inch or two just by correcting her posture. And then another inch through specific corrective exercises. I know that seems like exaggeration, but it isn't. Training schools for beauty throughout the country do it every day. But the catch in it is this. You MUST PERSISTENTLY EXERCISE DAILY for at least one month and semi-weekly thereafter. My leaflet gives you the instructions — it is up to you to follow them.

Heavy Breasts Need Proper Support

Those of you who complain of too ample a bosom, must shop for the properly fitting brassiere. Designers have done marvellous things for you in the past few years. They are aware of your trouble and they have created garments which will not only slenderize you somewhat, but will help to strengthen your pectoral muscles which have been stretched by the strain of too much weight. When that is done, your posture will naturally improve, and you will be able to carry any gown or suit with a chic air.

If your waist is slim, buy a nicely fitting brassiere, and a nicely fitting

When you are wearing the right support, exercise daily — not to develop your bust, but to firm your muscles. Specific exercises are given for you in my leaflet.

The Fashionable Bust Measurement

You, who are fortunate, and have nicely rounded breasts should for health's sake, if not for beauty's sake, do everything within your power to keep the pectoral muscles strong. Horseback riding, too strenuous tennis and other active games, without some support, is beauty suicide. And daily bust exercises are for your routine too!

The day will come when schools will teach young girls the importance of pectoral muscle exercising. A full, firm round breast is beautiful and denotes healthy lungs and excellent posture. All young girls should strive to attain this becoming feminine curve. Many have been born with this

What The Stars Foretell

By MARY BLAKE

A prevailing annoyance this day will be an inclination on the part of a great many people to hold whispered conversations. Politeness should prompt anyone, who has something confidential to impart, to seek a private place, and so avoid embarrassing anyone else who might be present by excluding him or her from the conversation. Many an enemy will be made this day by thoughtless rudeness; so it is important that personal conduct be governed by the rules prescribed by the conventionalities of polite society. Any troubles or difficulties that might come into your life this day, can be overcome easily, so do not allow them to worry you. Married and engaged couples, as well as those in whose hearts Cupid has kindled the flame of love, ought not to permit a feeling of lassitude on their part to interfere with any plan for social diversion this day. If a woman and November 19 is your birthday, your will power will carry you far in a professional, business or social way. Intellectual pursuits should appeal to you. Your sympathetic nature may make you allow too many people to impose on you. Your love may be severely tested, but it will stand any strain and may bring to you, ultimately, a wonderful amount of happiness. High ideals may inspire you to worthwhile efforts and possibly will bring gratifying results. Never let a lack of confidence cause you to be afraid to attempt something in a literary or artistic way, for you are apt to have a talent which, through lack of endeavour, might remain undeveloped. Social welfare, missionary, or educational work, writing, painting, singing or the playing of a musical instrument, might bring you both fame and affluence. Many may be the blessings that will come to you through matrimony.

The child born on November 19, as a rule, amply rewards its parents for their love, sacrifices and help. Usually in the bloom of youth this youngster makes a good start on the road to success.

CIANO TO VISIT WARSAW

Warsaw, To-day. The "Kurjer Warszawski" in a despatch from Rome says that the object of the call which the Polish Ambassador made on Count Ciano, the Italian Foreign Minister yesterday, was to discuss the question of the visit of Count Ciano to Warsaw, probably in December.

The impending visit is designed, it is stated here to give an expression to the desire of both countries to strengthen their ties of friendship and to work in close collaboration. — Trans-Ocean.

THEY'VE SEEN SEA MONSTER

Two Suffolk fishermen long hardened to the terrors of the sea, came back to Southwold still frightened at what they had seen when trawling in a calm sea Reason?

The Sea Monster

This is what Ernest Watson said: "A great head showed itself above the water, then flashed past like a torpedo. It struck up such a wash that all we could see afterwards was its camel-like back sticking out. "It towered over us, and went so fast that after a few minutes it was out of sight.

"I should never have believed it if I hadn't seen it," said William Herriington, the other fisherman.

"I just saw its head once—when Ernie shouted—and all I saw afterwards was its humped back. It must have been 60ft. long. It was grey and seemed to have a round back.

"It was big enough to sink any boat of our size if it had come nearer."

MR. EDEN ABSTAINS

London, To-day. The House of Commons rejected the Opposition motion for creation of a Munitions' Ministry by 326 votes against 130.

Only two Conservatives registered their protest against the Government policy. It is significant that Anthony Eden and Lord Canbroke abstained from voting.—Trans-Ocean.

SOBERING-UP SIR?

A "sobering-up" machine has just won the official approval of the New York City authorities, and a string of "sobering-up" stations are to be set up at New York's World Fair.

Each will have a machine fully tested by a New York hospital and guaranteed to restore people to sobriety within two hours however drunk they may be.

Dr. Joseph Hoguet, who will command the "sobering-up" stations with a staff of forty doctors and seventy nurses, said:

"The machine is so effective that it even saves drunks from the jitters, headaches and hangovers. A respirator is fitted over the patient's face giving him a mixture 90 per cent air and 10 per cent carbon dioxide gas. In two hours it can leave a drunk as sober as a judge and as fresh as a daisy."

All drunks at the World Fair will be seized and rushed to the "sobering-up" stations.

British Families Underfed Through Ignorance

A call for a national campaign to publicise a proper understanding of the different foodstuffs, a campaign which will help the mothers of Britain to build up a healthy nation, is made by Sir William Crawford and H. Broadley in their important survey "The People's Food" (Heinemann, 12s. 6d.).

due to inadequate and improperly constructed diets."

MILK CAMPAIGN

Green vegetables, fruit, and milk still need an educative campaign to convince the public of their value.

The surveyors found that the average consumption of milk by all classes was well below the League of Nations Nutrition Committee recommendation of 6.1 pints a week per head.

The wealthiest classes in Britain those who earn more than £1,000 a year, averaged 5.3 pints of milk a week per head. The poorest classes averaged only 2.14 pints, and "for the bulk of working-class homes cream is almost as much of a rarity as oysters and caviare."

SLIMMING DIET

"The subjects in which housewives confessed to be specially interested were:

"Particular diets (of which slimming diets and the feeding of young children were the most frequently mentioned.)

Recipes and new dishes

"Foods for the maintenance or restoration of health after illness.

"Such subjects as 'vitamins,' 'food values,' 'proper nutrition' were seldom mentioned . . . ."

Sir William Crawford strongly advocates fish as a valuable article of diet. "Rice is worthy of special regard," he writes. "With pale ale, spice, and sugar it has played no small part in the extension of Empire."

"The case for increased use of green vegetables is overwhelming.

"Eggs are a food of special merit. But the English housewife lacks the ingenuity of her Continental sisters in preparing them."

CIANO TO VISIT LONDON

London, To-day.

Trans-ocean learned last night from a semi-official source that the Italian Foreign Minister, Count Ciano, is expected in London at the end of January.

Between the visit of the British Ministers to Paris and the journey of Count Ciano to London, efforts will be made to settle by normal diplomatic negotiations, all questions still open between France and Italy.—Trans-Ocean.

Cairo, To-day.

All Egypt celebrated the birth of a daughter to Queen Farida.

Military parades were formed in her honour, while the city was illuminated at night and food distributed to the poor.

Every baby born yesterday in Egypt, 1,700 in all, will receive a present of £1 each from the State.—Reuter.

CHINESE FORCES MOVING GRADUALLY ON CANTON CHINESE REPORTS CLAIM

Shiukwan, To-day.

With large Chinese forces gradually nearing the city from several directions, and the Japanese rushing heavy reinforcements for its defence, a major battle for Canton is looming.

The Japanese tactics appear to be to abandon towns in the outer defence line and concentrate their troops for the defence of Canton itself.

The Japanese have been strengthening their defences in the outskirts of Canton during the last few days.

The Chinese recapture of Samshui is confirmed. The Japanese troops were withdrawn. They were attacked by Chinese guerrillas during the retirement.

The Japanese column from Tsung-fa fell back to Yanwohu, about 17 miles north of the Kwangtung provincial capital.—Central News.

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Canton, To-day.

Small parties of Japanese "feeler" groups have been sent out to ascertain the Chinese positions and strength, but have been unsuccessful.

Several more Japanese boats are expected to arrive here to-day from Formosa, carrying additional troops.

Late last night, machine-gun and rifle fire were faintly audible from the west, but this morning the Japanese declined to make any comment.

It is also rumoured that Chinese plainclothes agents have filtered into the city and are responsible for the recent fires breaking out.—Our Own Correspondent.

Prince Chichibu, who was with the South China Expedition in the early days, is shown in the top picture aboard a Japanese cruiser. Below, in front, is General Fushiro, the Commander-in-Chief in South China, who has been recalled to Tokyo, because, it is suggested, things are not going as well as expected.

CZECH-SLOVAK PARLIAMENT IN SESSION

Prague, To-day.

Opening Parliament yesterday, the Prime Minister, General Syrovy, declared that it was the aim of the Czechoslovak Government to live in peace with all neighbours, particularly with Germany.

Czechoslovakia had made enormous sacrifices for the idea of unity of nations.

General Syrovy asked his countrymen across the borders to be loyal citizens of their new countries but never to forget their homeland and their language.

The Prime Minister concluded by indicating that the Government would ask Parliament for the necessary power to act promptly in negotiations with other States.

The National Assembly is to be called for next week to elect the President.—Trans-Ocean.

BELGIUM TO ADMIT REFUGEES

Bruxelles, To-day.

The Belgian Minister for Justice, M. Pholien, announced yesterday that the Belgian Government had decided to open temporarily the frontiers to Jewish emigrants from Germany.

He expressed the hope that these Jews would not disturb the social or economic order within the country, otherwise Belgium would immediately reclose the frontiers.—Trans-Ocean.

JAPAN PROCLAIMS END OF NINE-POWER PACT

By Innuendo In Reply To American Protest

Cooperation With Puppets Offered As "Bait"

Tokyo, To-day.

A denial of the charge that discriminatory measures were taken against American rights and interests in China is contained in the Japanese reply to the American note, handed to the American Ambassador, Mr. Joseph Grew.

The reply, after answering in detail the points raised in the note, points out the Japanese Government's "firm conviction" that any attempt to apply to conditions to-day and to-morrow the inapplicable ideas and principles of the past, would neither contribute to establishment of real peace in East Asia nor solve immediate issues.

The note ends: "However, as long as these points are understood, Japan has not the slightest inclination to oppose participation of the United States and other Powers in the great work of reconstructing East Asia along all lines of industry and trade, and it is believed that the new regimes now being formed in China will welcome such foreign participation." — Reuter.

DISTURBANCES IN PARIS

Paris, To-day.

The first public demonstrations in Paris against M. Daladier's emergency decrees took place yesterday night after shop closing time.

On the Place d'Italie about 3,000 Communists tried to line up for a demonstration march.

Strong detachments of police strengthened by Mobile Guards had to intervene several times to restore order. Several persons were injured and 13 arrests were made.

The crowds cried "Down with Daladier!", "Down with Reynaud," "Down with the emergency decrees."

At midnight the police finally succeeded in dispersing the demonstrators. — Trans-Ocean.

FRENCH MILITARY MISSION LEAVES PRAGUE

Paris, To-day.

The French military mission which had been active in Czechoslovakia for the past 20 years, has now returned to France according to the "Action Francaise."

The members of the mission, it is stated, are now wearing civilian clothing. — Trans-Ocean.

His Excellency the Governor, on the instructions of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, has appointed Mr. Henry Robert Butters to be Labour Officer, with effect from the 14th November.

JAPANESE AIR RAIDS ON KWANTUNG

Japanese aircraft yesterday conducted bombing operations over many towns in Kwangtung, including Hoyuan, Lukfung, and Shekki, according to a "Ta Kung Pao" report.

More than 10 planes were active over eastern Kwangtung in the morning. Four of them raided Hoyuan, dropping two incendiary bombs.

Six machines flew to Lukfung where they released five explosives. Two of the missiles landed on the campus of the Lungshan Middle School, wrecking a building.

Four planes attacked Shekki in the Chungshan district in the afternoon. Six bombs were dumped. Eleven persons were killed and 43 wounded and many houses were demolished. — Central News.

Telegraphic information has been received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies that the funeral of the late President of the Turkish Republic will take place on Monday.

Owing to the Combined Manoeuvres and the "Black Out" next Thursday, the weekly Tombola run by the Public Works Recreation Club will be brought forward to Wednesday, commencing at the usual time — 8 p.m.

PREMIER AND IL DUCE AFFIRM AMITY

London, To-day.

Mr. Neville Chamberlain and Mussolini exchanged telegrams after the declaration bringing into force the Anglo-Italian Agreement.

The telegrams affirmed that on the basis of the Agreement they would work together in friendship and for the good of the peoples of the two countries. — Reuter.

GERMANY SUSPICIOUS OF MOTIVES

Berlin, To-day.

The suggestion made a few days ago in the House of Commons that Jew emigrants from Germany should be settled in the former German colonies, especially in Tanganyika, German East-Africa and the Cameroons, is denounced by the Berlin papers as a "transparent chess move" to cross the German colonial demands.

The "Berliner Tageblatt" expressing the belief that the House of Commons' member who made this suggestion, was inspired by the Jews, continues:

"We shall wait and see what final declaration will be forthcoming from the British Government next week but already now it must be said that the German colonial demands voiced in Hitler's Weimar speech, are becoming an increasingly pressing problem.

"It is a very ticklish matter if England treats the former German colonies entrusted to her as Mandate territories as if they were her own property." — Trans-Ocean.

ROOSEVELT APPOINTS ADVISORY BOARD

WASHINGTON, TO-DAY. PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT HAS ANNOUNCED THE APPOINTMENT OF A TEMPORARY BOARD, CONSISTING OF FOUR MEN, TO ACT IN AN ADVISORY CAPACITY ON CERTAIN FISCAL AND MONETARY SUBJECTS.

Members are Mr. Henry Morgenthau (Secretary of Treasury), Mr. Merriner Eccles (Governor of the Budget) and Mr. Frederick Delano (Head of the National Resources Committee).

THE DAILY SHORT STORY

OFF THE RECORD

PHIL MAITLAND has been the Journal's court reporter for seventeen years. He has tried several times to quit because he hates routine, but the Journal hasn't let him quit. They've always raised his pay and offered other inducements to keep him on the job. There is, of course, a good reason: Phil has a sense of drama. He puts a zip into the most commonplace routine stories. He also delves. He digs up things that give reality to his drama.

Last night I read a routine item on the Journal's court news page about a man named Somers who had, according to the records, been arrested and fined for stealing gasoline. Later that evening I met Phil at the Press club and he gave me the facts behind the yarn.

"I was in court," I told him. "I heard the case and listened to sentence being imposed. How is it that you didn't get a dramatic bang into this yarn like you have others?"

"Did you notice who paid Somers' fine?" Phil asked.

"No. What difference does that make?"

"Spencer Jones paid it."

"Spencer Jones?" I stared. "Why he was the man who preferred the charges against Somers."

"Exactly. It was from Jones' boat boat and then Somers could go on back to the Mayfair's.

"Somers proceeded to carry out this suggestion. He was in the act of siphoning, when a deputy sheriff materialized out of the gloom and arrested him."

"Spencer Jones, returning from a business trip sooner than he expected, had seen Somers siphoning the gas from his boat and summoned the deputy.

"Everything would have gone off smoothly except that Spencer discovered that the girl, who had been boat riding with Somers, was his, Spencer's wife. This distressed him no end. He hated scandal and would have dropped the gas-stealing charges and dealt with his wife in his own way, except that just then Harold Mayfair and another deputy, cruising by the Jones' camp, noticed the stolen Mayfair boat, and put into the Jones' wharf to investigate."

"Somers tried to explain to Mayfair that he had only borrowed the boat, but Mayfair wasn't satisfied. He said he was going to prefer charges against him, and thought Jones ought to, too."

"Jones' pride forbade him from admitting that his wife could be disloyal to him, and so he pleaded with that Somers was caught stealing the gas. And the funny part was, Somers was driving Harold Mayfair's boat."

By Stanley Cordell

"I didn't know that. It wasn't mentioned in the trial."

"There's no reason why it should be. Somers came up from New York and called on the Mayfairs, whom he only knew slightly. The Mayfairs were away from their camp at the moment but the boat was ready for use in the slip."

"Somers wrote a note, advising that he had borrowed the boat to go to Bearcamp Island, the camp on a girl who was working for one of the campers over there. Shortly after he departed, a strong wind came up and blew the note away. Two hours later the Mayfairs returned home, found their boat missing and notified the police."

"In the meantime, Somers had called on his girl friend and invited her to go for a ride. They cruised around the lake for awhile, returning to Spencer Jones' wharf after dark."

"They were within a hundred yards of the wharf when the motor sputtered and died. Investigation proved they had run out of gas."

"Somers' companion suggested that they paddle into Spencer Jones' wharf, siphon some gas from Jones'

Mayfair in Somers' behalf, and finally persuaded him to drop the boat-stealing charge, but only after promising to prosecute on the gas-stealing charge. You see, Mayfair had a sense of pride too. He didn't want to go home and tell his friends he had caught the boat thief and let him go Scott-free."

"The night have settled the dispute business except that Somers' wife Jones' lost if he prosecuted he'd tell everyone about Jones' wife being disloyal."

"So Jones promised to pay Somers' fine and give him a hundred dollars besides if Somers would agree to say nothing that would get into the court record about the wife business."

"So that's why it looked in court like just another petty thief case, lacking in drama. The real drama came when Jones paid Somers the $100 last night. They say that Somers won't be out of the hospital for a week."

"What a swell story!" I exclaimed. "Why in the world didn't you make something out of it for the Journal?"

Phil Maitland sighed. "I couldn't," he said. "Spencer Jones owns the Journal."

BAN NOW PLACED ON JEWISH DEPARTURES

Not Allowed To Leave Until Levy Is Paid

Jews Again Permitted To Buy Food!

Berlin, To-day.
No Jews will be allowed to leave Germany until the levy of £80,000,000 as the result of the murder of von Rath has been paid in full, according to semi-official reports.

Would-be emigrants must possess certificates stating that all taxes have been paid before they will be allowed to leave the country.

Jews are again being allowed to buy food, and a number of Jewish shops have been allowed to be opened.

Since the recent incidents, when all Jewish shops were more or less destroyed, all "Aryan" shops have refused to sell food to Jews.—Reuter.

ROOSEVELT DECREE

Washington, To-day.
President Roosevelt has announced that on humanitarian grounds he has proposed a six-month extension of their permits for 20,000 German and Austrian refugees to stay in the United States.

President Roosevelt has informed Miss Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labour, that it would be a cruel and inhuman thing to compel refugees to return to Germany to face possible mistreatment, concentration camps or other persecution.

He added that the Administration at present did not contemplate letting down the immigration barriers to permit entrance of German refugees.—Reuter.

His Excellency the Governor has appointed Mr. William James Carrie to act as Secretary for Chinese Affairs, with effect from the 14th November.

SCOTS FINED LOVE-MAIL TOO DEAR

Thirty young women of Watford, each willing to marry a Highland soldier, have had their hopes dashed.

Their husbands-to-be would not pay except postage on their proposals.

"We are pretty serious-minded fellows and being Scots, we have a certain amount of canniness. That is about the loss of our virtues, but we hope to make good husbands," wrote two Gordon Highlanders from Singapore to the Mayor of Watford, Councillor T. Rigby, asking to be put in touch with two women with a view to matrimony.

The Mayor did his best and sent between thirty and forty letters from Watford women—but received them back marked "Unclaimed," together with a postage bill for 8s. 6d.

The Mayor says he can do no more. He cannot understand why the letters were unclaimed as he had a second letter from the soldier who wrote to him.

Whether the fact that they were Scotsmen and refused to pay the extra postage of about 500 cents caused the return of the letters, he does not know.

One soldier wrote that they were coming to Watford for vocational training before entering civilian life.

They wanted to meet two young women who were not afraid "to take the chance of matrimony."

"PINK" TORIES: BY LADY LONDONDERRY

"Pink" Conservatives are a danger within the ranks of the party, said Lady Londonderry, speaking in Newcastle.

"We are living in hectic times, and in the near future we are going to be faced with an insidious campaign, not only from our enemies, but from the 'pink' people inside our ranks," she declared. "The 'pink' people must either remain white or go red."

FRENCH STATE VISIT TO LONDON

London, To-day.
It is officially announced by Buckingham Palace that President and Mme. Lebrun will come to London on a state visit in March next year.

The visit will be in return for the trip of the King and Queen to Paris.—Reuter.

GEN. SYROVY SEEKING PLENARY POWERS

Prague, To-day.
A law by which the Czechoslovak Government is seeking plenary powers is to be submitted to Prague Parliament by General Syrovy today.

The House will also be asked to give its consent to a motion regulating the legal position of Carpatho-Ukraine in the framework of the new Czechoslovak Federal State. The arrangement proposed is the same as that applied in the case of Slovakia.

It is learnt, however, that the Government will refrain from submitting either motion unless it is assured that certain differences still existing between the Government Parties on these two questions have first been surmounted.

The chief opposition to the Government's stop in asking for plenary powers comes from the Slovaks who considered the powers demanded by the Government to be too far-reaching.—Trans-Ocean.

DEMOCRACY

The firm belief of the philosopher is that the fate of democracy is linked up with the fate of intellect.

That modern democracy should have originated in England where philosophy had enthroned common sense and experience, is no mere accident of history.

It is no accident either that the French revolution should have sprung from the intellectual Age of Enlightenment. For democracy proceeds along the path of intellectual experience. It is inchoate, never completed, forever tentative. New experience necessitates constant readjustments.

Democracy it not to be considered as an ideal state of society already achieved but as an eternal goal just as knowledge is an eternal goal. We must not expect that it will solve all our problems or cure every trouble and difficulty. The very essence of democracy is to have done away with miracles and magic formulas. Every step forward has to be paid for with considerable effort and patience.

A dictatorship on the other hand resembles a man obstinately zigzagging from one side of the street to the other with a great show of careless energy and singing marching songs. In its tentative progress democracy resembles evolution while dictatorships spell adventure. Do you believe that the history of mankind is meant to be an evolutionary process or rather a series of adventurous incidents? Of course adventure is attractive, especially for young people.

Every revolutionary impulse is more or less adventurous and every extremist considers himself a romantic and takes pleasure in the risks of the political game.

Democracy, however, is not a game. It is a method of adjusting irrational factors to intellectual standards by co-ordinating and controlling them. It is the same process which our intellect applies to our experience, sentiments and motives—a process of sifting and comparing.

Verdict—With Music

Fact can be as Gilbertian as fancy. The librettist of "Iolanthe," "The Mikado"—and how many other gems of polysyllabic persiflage?—would find a plot ready made in a case decided by the Recorder's court in Quebec recently.

A man was charged with possessing burglars' tools by night, having been arrested at 9.21 p.m.:

Oh, woe betide the poor fellow.

Unless the judge's heart be mellow!

For one possessing burglars' tools after 9 p.m. must bear the burden of proving that he did not intend to use them in what W. S. Gilbert called "his employment."

Sir Arthur Sullivan would have written music in a minor key for this moment. But wait, and hark! There is balm in Gilead, and succor even in a solicitor. For the man's lawyer discovered that his client was arrested by daylight-saving time. Daylight-saving time, he held, does not apply to the criminal code. The man, he contended, was arrested at 8.21 p.m.

The court accepted the plea, a report from Quebec states. Thus with implications on which Gilbert might construct a happy ending, the burden of proof swung from the defendant to the prosecution, which now must refute the claim that while in possession of burglars' tools the man was not actually "maturing his felonious little plans."

So with justice emphatic,
The end is ecstatic,
And to keep himself out of jail's cloisters

He may prove his equipment
Was meant for a shipment
Of reluctantly edible oysters.

Harry Hawk

The British Broadcasting Corporation has added one more to the nation's band of eponymous heroes. It has set the figure of Harry Hawk, the military airman, in the Pantheon that includes, among others, Jack Tar, Tommy Atkins, Mr. Roe and Mr. Doe of legal fame, Pooh-Bah, Jeeves, and that preposterous patriot, wearer of the very old school tie of red, white and true-blue, Colonel Blimp.

Harry differs slightly from his companions in that we know something of his previous career. For was he not one of the famous company that rode with Uncle Tom Cobleigh and all to Widdicombe Fair? In view of his unfortunate experience then with Tam Pearce's Old mare, it is not astonishing that he has deserted her for Pegasus.

One wishes him every success, but one cannot help thinking that he suffers a trifle from an alliterative excellence, and is perhaps too true to be good. He has a touch of the robot. It was difficult for him to escape it, because he has been made to order—a fact that in itself may tend to shorten his term of office; for the name that clothes a familiar fiction wears better for not having been bespoke.

Colony School For Nazis

PUBLIC ENTHUSIASM TO BE AROUSED

BERLIN, OCTOBER 31. THE FIRST SCHOOL OF "COLONIAL POLITICS" IN GERMANY WAS OPENED YESTERDAY AT LADEBURG, NEAR BERNAU IN NORTH GERMANY, BY GEN. RITTER VON EPP, GOVERNOR OF BAVARIA AND LEADER OF THE REICH COLONIAL LEAGUE.

After an intensive training in the political, economic and racial aspects of Germany's colonial demands, chosen members of the Nazi party will be sent from the school to propagate "colonial mindedness" among the German people.

Fortnightly courses will be provided for 50 young men at a time, so that 1,200 "colonial campaign leaders" will be turned out in one year.

Lectures will be given by veterans who served in the former German colonies before and during the war. Administrators, farmers and soldiers will all hand on their knowledge to the men who, if Germany's demands are realised, may one day be their successors.

"GERMANY TO CHOOSE TIME"
In his speech Gen. von Epp said that Germany would herself choose the time for the solution of the colonial problem and would tolerate no dictation. She claimed the possessions which had been taken from her on "slanderous pretexts." The injustice must at last be made good. The initiative did not lie with Germany but with the present mandatory Powers."

The German people must be filled with enthusiasm for colonies, so that when the leaders of the new Reich had once more made Germany a colonial Power they would regard these possessions as their own property. The colonies must be as closely connected with the home country as any German province.

"Our people," he concluded, "require for their existence the wide outlook of a world power. They must be convinced that they will again enter the ranks of the colonial nations."

PRESS CAMPAIGN

Meanwhile the German Press continues to insist that the return of Germany's colonies is a question of "equal rights," the phrase used to justify all Herr Hitler's previous "corrections" of the Treaty of Versailles. It is denied that Germany has any interest in the colonial possessions of smaller countries.

"It must be emphatically stated," the "Hamburger Fremdenblatt" declares, "that Belgium and Portugal have nothing to do with the colonial dispute. Germany claims only what once belonged to her, and was taken from her on the basis of untrue allegations."

The newspaper adds that if Mr. Pirow, the South African Defence Minister, comes to Germany his visit will relate only to the question of trade relations.

New York, November 1.

John Deering, thirty-nine, a murderer, to-day chose to die by facing a firing squad at Utah State Gaol, so that scientists could test the length of time this form of execution takes to kill.

He thought hanging too sordid.

Deering puffed a cigarette and wisecracked a few minutes before his death while scientists put electric wires around his wrists and connected them with a delicate machine called the electrocardiograph.

When one of the four bullets fired by the squad hit Deering's heart the cardiograph made its record.

Scientists hurried away with the instrument for study and discussion.

Deering, who struggled fifteen seconds after the bullets struck him, lived for two minutes, but was unconscious.

Toasted His Own Death

A few hours before Deering was shot he bequeathed the corneas of his eyes to the blind and his body to hospital for dissection.

"I wish I could know the results of your experiment, but that won't be possible," laughed Deering to the scientists as they placed the wires round his wrists.

"But I must say I am glad I am going to die. I have been in and out of prison all my life. It is nice to end it all."

He called for a glass of cognac, toasted his chaplain, his prison warden—and his own death.

The execution squad fired from behind a screen.

One of the five marksmen had a blank cartridge, so that each one could hope he did not fire the fatal shot.

Deering who was found guilty of murdering a Salt Lake City businessman, had refused a reprieve.

Share Of £3,500,000 Fortune

LONDON TAILOR'S CLAIM

London, October 29.

Mr. Joseph Schaeffer, of King Edward-road, Hackney, has been given power of attorney by his father, Mr. Marks Schaeffer, to claim a share in a fortune of £3,500,000 in New York.

Mr. Marks Schaeffer is a tailor, aged 66. The fortune was left by Mrs. Garrett, widow of the United States tobacco king, who died in 1930 at the age of 90, without a will.

The brother of Mr. Schaeffer's grandfather fled from Russia 150 years ago. He is stated to have been the grandfather of Mrs. Garrett who left the money.

The claim to the fortune was made about two years ago after Mr. Schaeffer had read of it in a paper. His son Joseph later visited New York and appointed a solicitor to act.

The solicitor, Mr. Leonard Blauner, stated yesterday that hundreds of other claims had been received, but there seemed to be some possibility of establishing kinship between Mrs. Garrett and Mr. Schaeffer.

Marriage Schools Draw Queues Hundreds Turned Away From Classes

Training-for-Marriage classes in England have become so popular that hundreds of girls are being turned away at some evening technical institutes.

Dressmaking, cookery, laundry work, child welfare, domestic electricity and hygiene are the favourite subjects.

Most of the girls who want to take them are engaged or hoping to be engaged to be married.

Regent-street Polytechnic, one of the most important schools in London, has turned away a "tremendous number" of applicants for cookery and dressmaking classes.

Chelsea Polytechnic has had many more girls applying than ever before, but has managed to find room for them.

RUSH OF STUDENTS

"It is impossible for us to cope with the rush of students in this district," said one evening school principal. "This year we have had two extra dressmaking classes and I have made arrangements to take a few more girls in the cookery kitchens."

"But that is not nearly enough. We had one night for enrolling in these subjects."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SERMON

Subject: Soul And Body

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches, tomorrow, November 20th, will be "Soul and Body".

The Golden Text will be:—"Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee!" (Isaiah 26:8).

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible:—"For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many rebound to the glory of God. For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish yet the inward man is renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal." (II Corinthians 4: 15-18).

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Churches Textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:—"The material body and mind are temporal, but the real man is spiritual and eternal. The Science of being reveals man as perfect, even as the Father is perfect, because the Soul, or Mind, of the spiritual man is God, the divine Principle of all being, and because this real man is governed by Soul instead of sense, by the law of Spirit, not by the so-called laws of matter. Man's true consciousness is in the mental, not in any bodily or personal likeness to Spirit." (page 302).

JUDGE CONDEMS U.S. FINANCER

'Unscrupulous And Ruthless'

RAUD ACTION THAT LASTED 24 DAYS

An American company promoter, Mr. William Rhodes Davis, of New York, was described as an "unscrupulous and ruthless financier," by Mr. Justice Lewis, in the King's Bench Division when judgment was given in an action which occupied 24 days last term.

About 900,000 words were spoken during the hearing and witnesses came from New York, Berlin, Hamburg and Copenhagen.

The action was brought by Mr. Carl Frederik Glad and Aktieselskabet Gica, of Copenhagen, a company in liquidation. They made allegations of conspiracy to defraud against William Rhodes Davis and Henry Warren Wilson, financiers, of New York, the Foreign Oil Co. Inc., of Boston, U.S., and Crusader Petroleum Industries, of St. Helen's place, Bishopsgate, E.C.

Mr. Glad, a Dane and owner of the Gica company, alleged that the defendants induced him to enter into a release of a substantial arbitration award obtained by him and the Gica company in Berlin in 1935, against the Foreign Oil Co. Inc., for breach of a contract concerning petrol supplies.

Breach of another contract, signed at the Dorchester Hotel, W., in December, 1935, was also alleged by Mr. Glad.

The defence was a denial of the allegations, it being maintained that the Gica company could not fulfil its part of the contract.

Mr. Justice Lewis said that in the witness-box Mr. Davis was overbearing. He could not accept him as a witness of truth.

"I find," said his lordship, "that Wilson and Davis were guilty of conspiracy to defraud the plaintiffs of the fruits of the Berlin arbitration award, and the plaintiffs are entitled to damages."

Mr. Justice Lewis also found there had been a breach of the contract arrived at in London in December, 1935.

His lordship said he would hear arguments later as to the amount of damages.

NAVY EXPECTED TO TAKE BOTH POINTS OFF MIDDLESEX

Bright On Injured List: Courtney as Pivot

CLUB-KOWLOON "DERBY" CLASH

THREE excellent First Division League football matches will be featured this afternoon, outstanding among which is the clash at Causeway Bay between Royal Navy and Middlesex Regiment.

Both teams have at the moment played seven fixtures, but the Senior Service are two points ahead as the result of having lost only one game.

Navy are particularly strong this season due to the presence of so many of His Majesty's ships and Middlesex will have to be at their best, particularly as Bright, their outstanding centre-half, is an absentee through injury and Courtney will fill the pivotal berth instead.

Now that the Volunteer Camps have come and gone, much speculation has been aroused over the clash to-day between Club and Kowloon Football Club, at the Valley. This Civilian "Derby" has invariably produced an exciting game and to-day's clash should prove no exception to the rule.

SCOTS FAVOURED

In the remaining encounter South China "B" entertain Royal Scots, but in view of their very poor showing of late, the Scots are expected to come away with the points.

There are two First Division matches down for decision to-morrow and these should result in wins for South China "A" and Eastern.

"REVIEWER'S" SPORTS COMMENTARY

Most Extraordinary Fight!

The most extraordinary fight England has known for years was announced last week, when contracts were signed for Arthur Danahar and Eric Boon, the two young light-weights whom the boxing public have been waiting for months to see in opposition, to fight in private at a secret venue within the next three weeks.

Arrangements were completed at the offices of Mr. Sydney Hulls, the Harringay promoter, who stated that he was acting only on behalf of an anonymous sportsman, who wished to see Boon and Danahar fight, and had offered a big sum of money for it to take place in private before his own friends and officials of the British Boxing Board of Control, who would be invited. The contest, he said, would be over eight rounds, at the light-weight limit of 9 st. 9 lbs.

Whether the result of the fight will be announced through the Press depends upon the arguments which have already started between the different parties interested.

Present at the signing of contracts were Mr. Sydney Hulls, Mr. John Harding, manager of the National Sporting Club, who have fostered Danahar; Boon's manager, Mr. Jack Solomans, and Danahar himself. Mr. Solomans signed on behalf of Boon for the fight, and Danahar put his own signature to the contract.

The reason Boon and Danahar are fighting in private is stated to be that Danahar does not want to meet Boon in public other than at the National Sporting Club, while Boon is equally emphatic that he does not want to meet Danahar there.

Mr. John Harding said:—"I do not approve of the match being in private at all. I am going to ask Danahar to appear before the directors of the National Sporting Club. I do not see why the members of the Club who have, after all, been Danahar's staunchest supporters, should be prevented from seeing him in this fight against Boon."

"The Club are not able to make a better-offer than that which has already been made to the two men, but they can protest most strongly about the fight being allowed to go on in this way."

Mr. Hulls stated that "The contract has been definitely signed, and whether people argue about it or not, that is a concrete fact."

Larwood Retiring From County Cricket

Harold Larwood, Nottinghamshire and England fast bowler, is retiring from county cricket.

This news was contained in a statement issued by the Nottinghamshire County Cricket Club, which reads:

"It is a matter of general knowledge that for some time past, owing to the condition of his knee, Harold Larwood has been unable to bowl."

Having come to the conclusion, founded on medical advice, that there was no likelihood of any improvement, Larwood has generously asked the committee to release him from the remainder of his contract, which has another two years to run. This offer the committee have accepted whilst deeply regretting the circumstances which have rendered it necessary."

Larwood has never recovered his true form since he returned from the tour of Australia in 1932-33, during which he injured his left foot. He underwent several operations, which at the time seemed successful, but the strain imposed on his leg when bowling all out proved too much.

Last summer Larwood took only six wickets for 866 runs and did not play

Junior Shield Entry A Record

TO-DAY'S ELIMINATING ENCOUNTERS

MIDDLESEX - AIR FORCE TIE BEST ON CARD

Another local football record has been created by the entry of 24 teams in the Junior Shield Competition, a circumstance unforeseen by the Hong Kong Football Association when drawing up the fixture list for the present season.

In consequence of this large entry, it has been found necessary for an extra round to be played to-day before the First Round proper, which will commence on December 10.

The draw is particularly interesting as the teams all appear to be evenly matched and, with the spirit attached to such cup tie matches, the standard of football this weekend should be high.

BEST MATCH

The outstanding game should be that between Middlesex and Royal

Air Force. Middlesex are at present holding a very strong position in the Second Division, while Air Force (with H.M.S. Eagle in port), are strongest contenders for the Third Division title and will be considerably strengthened.

Another good game should be that between Stonecutters, leaders of the Third Division, and the Medical Corps. The Medicals have not been faring too-well lately, but have still a large number of last year's players available.

NEXT WEEK'S FOOTBALL PROGRAMME

Owing to the combined manoeuvres, which will effect all services and civilian teams, next week's football programme has been greatly curtailed and only the following matches will be played.

Mysterious Death Of Racehorse

Rowan Leaf Found Dying In Box

(By AIR MAIL)

London, November 1.

Rowan Leaf, a three-year-old filly, owned by Mrs. C. Rich, and trained by Walter Nightingall at Epsom, was found dying in her box at the Links Stables, at Newmarket, when it was opened early yesterday. A stable lad made the discovery. A stable companion, Arc-en-Ciel, which was in an adjoining box, was found to be seriously ill, but is recovering.

Rowan Leaf and Arc-en-Ciel, with two others of Nightingall's horses, Sacred Fish and Celiba colt, had been sent by road from Epsom to Newmarket on the previous day. Rowan Leaf and Arc-en-Ciel made the journey in the same motor horse van. Sacred Fish and Celiba colt were in another.

All the horses appeared to be perfectly well when they were put in their boxes at Newmarket for the night. They were to have run at Newmarket yesterday. Sacred Fish and Celiba colt were found to be quite well, but their trainer decided as a precaution not to start them.

Immediately the discovery was made, Mr. Brayley Reynolds, the veterinary surgeon, was called in to examine the horses, and the police were notified. Mr. Reynolds took away for analysis samples of the food the horses had taken, and a post-mortem examination of Rowan Leaf was made.

PREVIOUS DEATHS RECALLED

"Certain material has been sent for examination," Mr. Reynolds said to a reporter, "but no opinion can be given until the result of this is known."

Mr. Nightingall, the trainer, said the horses seemed perfectly healthy when they left Epsom. He was informed on the phone of what had happened, and at once left for Newmarket. The police found that the locks of the horse-boxes had not been tampered with.

Rowan Leaf had won three races this season, and in her nine races had failed only once to get a place. Her mysterious death recalls that of five horses which took place at Newmarket in January last. They died in two separate training establishments—four were trained by the Hon. G. Wellesley, and one by Captain Whitaker.

Post-mortem examinations were made at the Royal Veterinary College in London, and it was subsequently announced that the horses which had died, and one which had recovered, showed similar symptoms of superpurgation associated with fever, laboured pulse, and later pain and prostration. The examinations had failed to reveal any common cause for the illnesses, but it was emphasised that there was no evidence that the horses suffered from any contagious or infectious condition.

On his arrival home from his Australian tour, Kingsley Kennerley, English amateur billiards champion, stated that Walter Lindrum, world professional titleholder, had invited him to join in a world tour as a professional, but that he had declined the offer.

LEWIS'S TILT AT HEAVY-WEIGHT BOXING TITLE

New York, November 3.—Joe Louis, the heavy-weight champion of the world, will defend his title against the light-heavy-weight champion, John Henry Lewis, in a 15-rounds contest at Madison Square Garden on January 27, Mike Jacobs announced here last night.

It will be Louis's first defence of the title since he knocked Max Schmeling out in the first round in June, and will be the first all-negro world heavy-weight championship fight in the history of the ring.

The announcement comes as a surprise, for Jacobs had begun a series of eliminating contests to find an opponent for Louis. Among those in the running was Tommy Farr, who has gone the distance with Louis.—Press Association.

WHITEAWAY, LAIDLAW
& CO., LTD.

London, November 8. TWO seventeen-year-old tennis girls — Miss Rosemary Thomas and Miss Gem Hoahing, four-foot-six British-born Chinese girl — were included yesterday in the official ranking list. Rosemary is No. 10, Gem No. 11.

They are two of the three young tennis wonders of the moment. The third is fourteen-year-old schoolgirl Jean Nicoll, of Harrow.

Rosemary is slim, wears glasses, found work in a dress store fatiguing, but stayed up late every night to pass her matriculation rather than give up tennis.

She has a fine tennis brain, plays well at the back of the court, passing even the most expert volleys. She belongs to the Mrs. Moody poker-face variety of player.

HE HEARD HIMSELF PLAY FOOTBALL!

But He Was In Hospital

B. E. Nicholson, a member of the British Rugby team that has been touring South Africa, was to have played inside-threequarters in the match at Woodburn in which the British team defeated Natal by 15 points to 11.

Two days before the match he contracted a severe attack of tonsilitis, and was taken to a Durban hospital.

As he lay in bed Nicholson asked to be allowed to listen to the radio running commentary of the match.

MISTAKE NOT DISCOVERED

"I was particularly interested when I heard that I was playing," he said laughingly. "It appeared that I was breaking through rather well. I thought that was fine."

"I thought that at half-time the mistake would be discovered, but apparently it wasn't, and eventually I received a crack on the head, and was laid out."

"Ambulance men rushed on to the field to pick me up, but I'm glad to say I recovered before they reached and I stood up looking rather dazed."

IT HAPPENED BEFORE

Nicholson said it was the second time he had been in bed and heard an account of himself playing Rugby.

On the previous occasion, which was in a Surrey match, the mistake was discovered after the first ten minutes.

And she has beaten Mrs. King (Wightman Cup captain), Miss Susan Noel, Miss Valerie Scott, Miss Jean Ingram, all "names" in the tennis world. She was junior champion 1937.

Miss Gem Hoahing can see over the net, but not so very much above it. She has a solemn expression when she loses a shot, and a six times more solemn look when she wins one. She is fond of bull's eyes.

She was junior champion in 1936. She was too young then for "Wimbledon," and, like Rosemary, went in for killing off Wimbledon players at other tournaments.

She floored Mary Heeley at Eastbourne—Miss Heeley had been Britain's No. 1 a few years ago. On the Riviera last February Gem defeated the now French champion, Mme. Mathieu.

FOUR BOAT RACE COACHES FOR CAMBRIDGE

(By AIR MAIL)

London, November 10. Four former University oarsmen, none of whom secured a Blue, have accepted invitations to act as coaches for the Cambridge crew for the boat race on April 1. They are Mr. Frederick Page, Mr. Humphrey Boardman, Mr. Finlay Best, and Mr. Derek Mays-Smith.

Mr. Page is an Oxford graduate, and the other three are old Cambridge men. Mr. Page has coached Oxford on several occasions, and Mr. Mays-Smith helped Cambridge last season.

GEORGE JAMES TO MEET LARRY GAINS

(By AIR MAIL)

November 2.

Disappointed in his quest for an Empire Championship eliminating fight with Maurice Strickland, Larry Gains, the Canadian and former holder of the title, has found an opponent in young George James, Welsh heavy-weight champion.

Mr. Sydney Hulls announced yesterday that James is to meet Gains at Greyfriars Hall, Cardiff, on December 7, over twelve rounds. The articles were completed in London.

James, who is only 22, has already beaten Ben Foord, the former British and Empire champion, and if he succeeds against Gains, he will justify his claims for a match with the winner of the Harvey Phillips bout at Harringay on December 11 for the British title.

"Y" Ladies visit Homuntin where they meet the Schoolgirls and, although without the services of Miss M. Smith, who broke a finger playing softball and who will not be playing for at least three weeks, should win as the two substitutes, Miss V. Bradbury, who will fill the leader's berth, and Miss H. Bockler, who will be seen at inside-left, are both very good forwards.

"Y" JUNIORS WEAKENED

In the junior League the most interesting game should be that between C.B.A. Ladies and "Y" Ladies. The former beat C.B. School last week comfortably, while "Y" beat Recreio "A", one of the strongest teams in this division, by a solitary goal.

"Y" have, however, been considerably weakened by the promotion of Miss V. Bradbury and Miss H. Bockler to senior team and are not expected to win to-day's encounter. Mrs. Slater, one of the outstanding junior division fullbacks, leaves for Home next Tuesday and is a doubtful starter to-day.

MISS SIMPSON RELEGATED

Hong Kong Ladies who entertain St. Andrew's Ladies at the Valley, have been strengthened by the inclusion of Miss M. Simpson, in their attack, otherwise the team is unchanged.

H.K. Ladies' seniors, who have drawn a bye this week, will meet a team of Naval officers in a friendly game at the Valley commencing at 4.15 p.m.

To-Day's Cricket Programme

TWO RUGBY MATCHES FOR TO-DAY

There will be two Rugby games on the Army ground at Sookunpoo to-day.

The first game, which will be between the Club "A" XV and the 8th Destroyer Flotilla, will commence at 2.00 p.m. and this will be followed at 4.15 p.m. by a match between the Club and the Army.

Club 1st XV:—M. W. MacGrath; D. H. Stewart, H. D. Bidwell (Captain), M. G. Carruthers, H. van Leeuwen; W. E. Grieve, J. R. Henderson; K. A. Watson, K. W. Salter, R. G. L. Oliphant; C. M. Stark, E. W. Stout; W. B. Richardson, A. J. G. Taylor and H. W. E. Heath.

Club "A" XV:—J. Brown; D. B.

Kowloon Tong Just Scrape Through

MRS. A. E. CASTRO IN GRAND FORM

SOME EXCITING GAMES

(By "ADREM")

With Mrs. Nora Castro displaying an overwhelming superiority over the other five ladies, Kowloon Tong managed to beat their old rivals, St. John's, in the Mixed Doubles Division of the Badminton League by the odd game, at Kowloon Tong, last night.

The visiting men, particularly the Kwok brothers, had a slight edge over Kowloon Tong's men, and when one considers the scores of the games in which Mrs. Castro was engaged, one will appreciate the vast difference in her standard and that of the other ladies on view.

The match was actually decided on the eighth game of the evening when F. Tsang and Miss T. Gonzales registered their first win at the expense of S. Newman and Mrs. Penney.

MOST EXCITING GAME

Tsang and Miss Gonzales earlier, however, had been featured in easily the most exciting game of the evening, against David Kwok and Miss P. McCaw.

With Kwok smashing powerfully, the Kowloon Tong pair who were both lobbing short, could do nothing. Later, Tsang changed his tactics and concentrated on the short game, thus forcing his lady opponent to carry most of the burden.

By this time the Cathedral pairing had run into a lead of 17-5, but they were then gradually overhauled, and the score was taken to 20-19. Kwok then saw an opening, after service had changed hands several times, and made no mistake.

MISS McCAW IMPROVES.

Miss McCaw combined quite effectively with her partner and gave a much improved display over her form of last year. She keeps well up to the net and is very severe on anything loose.

Miss Eardley was promising and is likely to improve with more practice, but Mrs. Penney appeared to be overawed by the occasion and never gave of her best.

NOT AS FAST

Of the home ladies, the fine form of Mrs. Castro has already been mentioned. Mrs. da Roza, recently returned from a trip to Australia, was not as speedy in covering court as she might have been, and Ko, her partner, was forced to do an inordinate amount of work. Miss Gonzales would also do well to have some concentrated practice!

Both Fletcher and Ko played up to form but Tsang will have to add power to his clearing shots and smash more if he hopes to meet with any success in the future.

Miss T. Gonzales and F. Tsang (K. Tong), lost to F. H. Kwok and Miss

Eardley ..... 14-21

HUNCHES

All Bridge players have "hunches". Hunches may assume many different shapes. For instance, you may get a hunch that an opponent has bid a psychic or that partner has made some peculiar bid or play. At another time, you may get a hunch that the suits are peculiarly distributed.

In to-day's hand, Henry Chanin of Atlanta, Ga., got the hunch that trumps would not break. He played the hand on this basis and succeeded in bringing home a ticklish contract.

♦ Mr. Chanin

The bidding:

South West North East

1 ♠ Pass ♠ Pass Pass

4 ♠ Pass Pass Pass

West opened the King of spades and when East signalled frantically with the Jack, the suit was continued. Declarer trumped the second round and led a club to dummy, noting that East's ten dropped. A diamond was now led, East splitting his honours and Mr. Chanin winning with the Ace.

Next a trump was played to dummy's ten and another diamond lead was won by East's King. A third spade lead again forced Declarer and he now saw that he could take all the tricks if trumps were divided. However, his own singleton, plus the fact that East's club ten had dropped on the first round, caused him to suspect that even one more trump lead might prove fatal. Thus Mr. Chanin cashed his Jack of diamonds, discarding dummy's last spade, then played the ten which he trumped with dummy's heart Jack.

His next play was a small club, which East trumped. Now there was nothing East could do. As his best effort he tried the play of another spade. Mr. Chanin discarded his Ace of clubs and since dummy also was now out of spades, was able to trump with the eight. Mr. Chanin's hunch was really insurance in allowing for a bad trump break.

FRENCH CATHOLIC CHURCH AND HOSPITAL BOMBED DURING ICHANG RAIDS

Ichang, To-day.

Ichang, 350 miles above Hankow, was severely raided by Japanese aircraft successively on Thursday and Friday.

The French Catholic Church and its adjoining hospital were bombed and partially wrecked. Over 40 civilians seeking shelter there were killed and 30 others wounded.

SETTLEMENT ON GERMAN REFUGEES

London, To-day.

The Government is considering as a matter of the most serious urgency the plight of the German refugees, said Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in a speech at Rhyl yesterday.

They were anxious to make the maximum contribution that they could towards settlement of these people outside Germany.

They had telegraphed to the Governors of a number of Colonies where some settlement might be possible, and expected to be able to make a statement in the House of Commons on the position at the beginning of next week.—Reuter.

NEW FRENCH AMBASSADOR TO CHINA

Paris, To-day.

The Quai d'Orsay has asked the Chinese Government for agreement to the appointment of M. Henri Cosme, Minister at Athens, in succession to M. Paul Naggair, the retiring Ambassador to China, who has been transferred to Moscow.

M. Cosme for six years was sub-director for the Asia Department at the Quai d'Orsay, and also spent a long period as chargé d'affaires in China.

He is regarded by the Quai d'Orsay as one of their leading authorities on the Far East.—Reuter.

BLUE BOOK ON RECENT CRISIS

Paris, To-day.

The Quai d'Orsay announced last night that the French Government will shortly issue a Blue Book on the events of the September crisis.

This Blue Book, in addition to public speeches and official announcements, is expected to contain also documents hitherto unpublished.—Trans-Ocean.

The French flag was painted on the roofs of the church and hospital.

Shortly after 9 a.m. three planes dropped a number of incendiary and demolition bombs, causing several casualties among the civilians, and wrecking many houses.

In the afternoon a squadron of nine planes staged another raid. About 20 explosives and 10 incendiary bombs were dropped in the slum areas along the railway. Several fires were caused. Rows of houses were razed to the ground and nine persons were burnt to death.—Central News.

TIGHTENING UP SEDITION ORDINANCE

Draft of an amendment to the Sedition Ordinance published in the "Gazette" is designed to further tighten the Ordinance.

(a) by the repeal of the words "But it is not a seditious intention—" in the eighteenth line of subsection (1), and the substitution of the following words therefor:

"But an act, speech or publication is not seditious by reason only that it intends—";

(b) by the repeal of the proviso at the end of sub-section (1).

The Objects and Reasons state: Doubts have been expressed as to the effect of the proviso in section 3 (1) of the principal Ordinance, on the ground that it may be understood as nullifying to a large extent the provisions of the second part of the definition "sedition" which state what is not a seditious intention.

SHEKKI BOMBED

Shameen, To-day.

A message received from Chung Shan District states that several Japanese aircraft bombed Shek-ki yesterday afternoon.
